

Infinity Problem

Being in a society it's my duty to contribute a problem dedicated to Avengers. So this problem is about "The Avengers" . Avengers are MCU heroes who are the owners of some great power. It's been said that "With great power comes great responsibility". You are the new member of MCU and the rightful owner of "Respect Stone". Now it's your duty to show respect to the MCU heroes. To show respect you just have to write a program that will print the line "Thank You, Avengers" as it's given.

Input

There will be no input.

Output
